

Entrepreneur

You live for the action!

You are a quick thinker and love to turn your thoughts into plans into projects into results.

Skillfully solving problems comes naturally to you. You live in the moment, are great at improvising, and know how to make the most of what's available.

You need to be active, with a hands-on approach. You are competitive and love taking risks.

You have a gift for influencing others and gaining their confidence. You're a keen networker and can always find the influential people that will help you accomplish your goal.